DAY 01: ARRIVAL – KATHMANDU (-/-/-)

Arrive in Kathmandu. Meeting and assistance at the airport and transfer to the hotel.
Rest of the day is free.
Overnight at the hotel in Kathmandu

DAY 02: KATHMANDU (BREAKFAST/-/-)

Morning, sightseeing tour of Kathmandu Durbar Square and Swoyambhunath Stupa

It is a place where the city's Kings were crowned. Having been built and rebuilt over the generations, it is now the valley's number one tourist attractions. Most of the temples you see here are a mere three or four centuries old. The entire square was designated as a World Heritage Monument in 1979. The Durbar Square is teeming with shrines and statues. Walk around Kumari Chowk which is a home of "living goddesses", she comes to the balcony at the scheduled time to welcome the guests.

On the top of the hill west of Kathmandu value is one of the popular and instantly recognizable symbols of Nepal. It is also referred to as "Monkey Temple" by many tourists because of the large tribes of monkeys that guards the hill. Legends say after the Bodhisattva Manjushri drained the water from the lake revealing the Kathmandu valley, the lotus on the island of the lake was transformed into the hillock, and the blazing light from the lotus became the statue.

Afternoon, tour of Patan Durbar Square

Patan also known as Lalitpur is the second largest city inside the valley. Patan has a long Buddhist influence and the four corners of the city are marked by Stupas said to have been created by great Buddhist emperor around 250 BC. Durbar Square forms the heart of Patan. The Durbar Square is closely packed with temples, and with far more concentration of architecture than anywhere around the valley.
