Afternoon, tour of Panauti. This ancient Newar settlement 32 kms from Kathmandu is a fascinating relic of bygone days. It is today a charming, as an unspoiled village.

Later continue on to Dhulikhel. Once an important trade route between Nepal and Tibet now is a popular tourist destination for its panoramic, sunset and sunrise views. The Old town is an interesting area to wander around, with some fine old Newari buildings and several interesting temples. This area is comprised exclusively of four and five storey brick mansions, many with ornate wooden lattices in place of a glass window.

Overnight at the hotel Dhulikhel.

DAY 04: EARLY MORNING SUNRISE VIEW. LATER, DRIVE TO CHITWAN NATIONAL PARK
(220 KMS/7.5 HRS) (BREAKFAST/-/-)

Early morning, sunrise view from the hotel premises. After breakfast, drive to Chitwan (165 kms/5 hrs).

Situated in south central Nepal, park covers 932 sq. km in sub-tropical low lands of Terai. About one fifth of the park is savanna with over 70 different species of grasses, known generically as "elephant grass". Chitwan is among Asia's finest national park, renowned for its variety and abundance of wildlife. After lunch, commence an elephant safari to explore the jungle and view various wildlife.
